How We are Receiving Holy Communion in the Church

1. How to prepare – Gestures: When we are coming to the Priest, Deacon, or Extraordinary Minister, clearly indicate whether to be receiving the Host on the ‘tongue’ or on the ‘hand’. If it is on the tongue, place your hands in a folded prayer position in front of your chest. If it is on the hand, hold your hands one folded over the other, palms facing upwards, ‘higher’ up in front of your chest, not below your waist. If you will be receiving a blessing, arms are bended at the elbow with the forearms crossed over your chest.

2. Receiving Holy Communion: While coming forward to Receive Holy Communion, prepare in silence or while singing. Consume the Host in front of the Priest, Deacon or Extraordinary Minister. After receiving Holy Communion, it is an important time of silence or to sing the hymns to give thanks.

3. Those who are taking Holy Communion to the Sick: please go to the priest, not to the Deacon or Extraordinary Minister, because those doing so need permission of the Pastor since they are bringing Holy Communion on behalf of him. They are known, nominated, and doing it on behalf of the Pastor. Those who are already prepared and have a one-year commission to bring the Eucharist to the sick should be commissioned once each year, for a year only. Please remember in some circumstances the civil clearance is necessary and needs to be completed.

It was an honour to host
