Reconciliation Through Art - Monday the 30th of September: For the past two years you have heard a lot about the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund. Through your generosity our parishes have raised close to a million dollars for the Fund. To date 11 projects have received grants from the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund. The newest grant recipient is the Métis Artist Collective who is hosting Reconciliation Through Art on September 30th at the Mississippi Valley Textile Museum (3 Rosamond Street East.) The day, which runs from 10 am to 8 pm, will feature art, storytelling and performances from local and Indigenous artists. The artists will be selling their art, explaining and demonstrating their craft, and telling the stories behind their pieces. There will also be workshops, presentations, and storytelling throughout the day. We invite you to make the drive over to Almonte both to support these artists as well as see how your financial contributions do indeed make a difference. To get all the details about what promises to be a wonderful event including your free tickets go to reconciliationthroughart.ca

Jealousy

Jealousy can be a cancer in our hearts. We hear often the stories of violent acts committed because of jealousy. Jealousy is really bred from insecurity. And insecurity comes from a lack of knowledge of who we really are. When we come to realize that God loves us and has a plan for our lives, there is no need to be jealous of anyone. We just need to be obedient and allow God's plan to unfold in our lives. How that works out with others we should leave up to Him.

The virtue juxtaposed against the vice of Jealousy is Generosity. Jealousy destroys families, companies, governments, religious progress and, worst of all, those infected by it.

In the Old Testament when the word Jealousy was used it was with respect to that of God's against those who worshiped idols instead of Him.

Remember Jesus was not jealous and said:

Don't stop him, for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me.
(Mark 9:38)

"The good you do today, will often be forgotten. Do good anyway. Give the best you have, and it will never be enough. Give your best anyway."
Mother Teresa.
