Bringing Communion to the Sick and those Distributing Communion in the Church: If you are bringing Communion to the sick (whether family members or others) and those who are distributing Communion in the church (Extraordinary Ministers), you will be commissioned as is required yearly. There will be an initial meeting, on Tuesday, December 10, at 6:15pm for the parishioners who have been granted permission to act within these roles, by our Pastor, Fr. Robert, SDS. As well, on Sunday, December 15, at 9:00 am Mass, you will be called forward to complete the required commissioning within the celebration of Holy Mass. There are those parishioners who have already been prepared and were given a one-year commission to bring the Eucharist to the sick. The meeting and Mass will constitute their yearly commission. (Please remember, in some circumstances civil clearance is necessary and needs to be completed.)

Parish Resources for those Bringing Holy Communion to the Sick

Our parish has prepared a booklet entitled "Guidelines for Communion Ministers to the Sick and Homebound". Some of the topics touched upon in the publication include: the recommended time to schedule this ministry; issues surrounding the timing of a visit to the person who is sick; working with more than one person who will be receiving Holy Communion; the length of a visit; how to carry Holy Communion to the sick; the requirements of who Communion Ministers are to be; the Pastoral Code of Conduct; preparing a respectful presentation during the visit; amongst other things.

A CCCB publication entitled "Communion of the Sick" within which is specified: The Introductory Rites; The Liturgy of the Word; The Communion Rite; The Concluding Rites.

In Closing

There is nothing simple or commonplace about bringing Holy Communion to the sick and/or distributing Holy Communion in the church. What has just been mentioned outlines the most rudimentary instructions as a starting point for those bringing Communion to the sick and those distributing Communion in the church. Fr. Robert, SDS
